THE QUAICH
COMPANY

Welcome to our Scottish Collections

There's no better way to mark a special occasion or to offer a corporate gift the Scottish way, than with one of the Quaich Company's handcrafted pewter Quaichs, Scotland's treasured cup of friendship. Our Scottish Collections feature handmade quaichs as well as flasks, tankards, goblets and other pewter pieces decorated with iconic Scottish designs. They make the perfect gift or trophy to celebrate special events, birthdays, weddings and anniversaries for those who have a Scottish connection or a passion for Scotland.

The Quaich Company story

Originally established in Glasgow over 50 years ago, the Quaich Company is now run by Wentworth Pewter, one of the last remaining pewtersmiths in Britain. Our skilled craftsmen have made each Quaich and pewter gift, one piece at a time, using techniques that have been around for hundreds of years. From our works in Sheffield, the heart of the metalwork industry, we're proud to be able to keep the tradition of handcrafted Quaichs and pewter gifts alive.

Our proud heritage

Some of Scotland's most well-known heritage sites, castles, golf courses and tartan shops sell our Quaichs as a symbol of Scottish heritage, as well as Scottish gift shops across the US, Canada and Scotland. We are honoured that our Quaichs have been presented to four members of the Royal Family, King Olav V of Norway, Sean Connery, Scottish former World Champion snooker player, Stephen Hendry, MBE and the late Luciano Pavarotti.

Special commissions

We offer an in-house design service for unique pieces and special awards.

We often take commissions to reproduce old and ancient Quaich designs, bespoke handles and embossing. With our design and cutting facilities, we can develop our product ranges to create a set of special pewter pieces tailored to your business, organisation or club. Indeed the Museum of Scotland commissioned us to reproduce one of the oldest known Quaich designs. Whether you want our team to design something for you, or you have your own design in mind, we'll go out of our way to deliver something beautiful and individual to mark your occasion.

Engraving

We offer an engraving service so that each pewter gift can be personalised with any corporate logo, crest, coat of arms or design.

We'll provide proofs of the engraving so that customers know exactly what the design will look like in situ. Contact us to arrange engraving or if you have any questions at enquiries@thequaichcompany.com or phone 0114 2447693

CLADDAGH COLLECTION

“Let love and friendship reign” is the motto associated with the distinctive Claddagh design featuring two hands clasping a heart, with a crown above them both. It's therefore no surprise that it's a symbol of love, friendship and loyalty. Dating back to the 17th century, the design originates from the Irish fishing village of Claddagh, just outside Galway in Ireland.

THISTLE COLLECTION

The Scottish thistle is beautiful, fierce and wild - the perfect national emblem for a country of stunning landscapes, turbulent history and a resilient nation. It represents one of the highest badges of honour in Scotland, 'The Order of the Thistle' and has been an important symbol of Scottish heraldry for over 500 years. This iconic Scottish flower is also used to symbolise connections with Scotland overseas.

LION OF SCOTLAND COLLECTION

The Lion Rampant is the ancient standard of the kings and queens of Scotland. It represents strength and nobility and is used as a symbol of royalty. One of the first records of its use was in the 13th century by King William the Lion, where the emblem featured on the shield of the royal coat of arms of the ancient Kingdom of Scotland. Today it remains one of Scotland's most recognisable symbols.

PAISLEY COLLECTION

Resembling a twisted teardrop, it may seem surprising that the fig-shaped buta or boteh design, as it was originally known, actually comes from India. However, its western name comes from the town of Paisley, the west of Scotland, a centre for textiles. In the 1800s the town became known for its woven Kashmir shawls with their distinctive paisley designs.

CELTIC CIRCLE COLLECTION

Dating back to 500 BC, the beautiful knots in the Celtic circle have no beginning or end to represent eternity. Only one thread is used in each design which symbolises how life and eternity are interconnected. The intricate, complete loops are thought to represent loyalty, faith, friendship or love.
